CIRCUIT COURT—Justice MacArthur.—Flynn et al. vs. Evans vs. Philip; death of Philip sug-gested, and Charles Whitlington, administra-tor, made party. Hell vs. Cullinane; on trial.

First Comptroller Lawrence is hard at work in the Government Printing-office holiday on the Government Printing-office holiday question and will deliver a most exhaustive opinion. He is making a thorough examination of the question and has already found several vexed points to settle. He considers the question very important, as it not only affects the Government Printing-office, but many other branches of the public service, including the employes in the various navyyards. Letters have been addressed to the Public Printer, a number of private printing houses and the committee representing the claimants in this case, with a view of obtaining all possible information bearing on the question at issue. The Comptroller states that custom will have a great deal to do with forming his conclusions on the subject. His opinion will not be ready for several days yet. An idea of its length can be had when it is stated that he has already written fifty pages of legal cap and is not half through.

Children's Suits! Children's Overcoats!

In the Line of Children's Suits and Overcoats we can show styles and shapes that can be found at no other house in the city.

The question may be asked why no other house can show these styles--simply because LIKES, BERWANGER & CO. Manufacture all the goods they sell.

We have in our employ a gentleman known to the Trade as a Designer, who does nothing but study styles of Boys' and Children's Clothing and cut Patterns for the same.

Our house being the Only MANUFAC-TURING CLOTHING HOUSE in Washington, controls these Styles exclusively, as we sell to no Retailer in this city.

Our Prices are naturally Lower than others. We will at any time furnish you with Scraps of same goods as suit purchas , free of charge.
